Dreaming God's Dream for Advent: Next Steps

On Sunday, October 8, we started the process of discerning God's dream for our beloved Advent Episcopal Church with our Appreciative Summit. Thank you to all of you who stayed after church for lunch and participated—especially members of the 8:00 AM congregation who came back to church to participate.

These are the next steps of Dreaming God's Dream that will take place; please add them to your calendar:

Saturday, October 28: "How Am I Gifted by God for Ministry?" 9:00 AM in Paine Hall; Lunch provided. This workshop will help you learn about your own spiritual giftedness, and how those gifts, when used will bring you joy in living into what God has created you to do for bringing about God's Dream for Advent, and for the world. Again, all members of Advent are welcome to participate; should be concluded by 1:00 to 1:30 PM.

Friday, November 3: Dreaming God's Dream for Advent, Part 2:

Beginning at 2:00 PM in Paine Hall. All members of Advent are welcome to participate; should be concluded by 5:00 PM. This is the first of a four-part process to discern God's Dream for Advent. This first workshop focuses on "Practical Vision." What would we like to see at Advent in three to five years' time? What say you?

Saturday, November 4: Dreaming God's Dream for Advent, Part 2:

Beginning at 9:00 AM in Paine Hall. This is the second workshop of the four-step process. Here we focus on "Underlying Contradictions," to answer the question, "What has been stopping us from having this vision now?" Lunch is provided this day, as well. Following lunch, we turn our attention to "Strategic Directions," which focuses on concrete, specific actions to overcome our obstacles and move toward wholeness and completion. All members of Advent are welcome to participate; we should be concluded by 3:30 PM.

Sunday, November 5: Dreaming God's Dream for Advent, Part 2:

Following our All Saints Sunday 10:00 AM service, we'll gather for lunch in Paine Hall, review our progress, and then together, we turn our attention to "Focused Implementation." Here we put action steps on the wall and commit to seeing them through, given what we have discerned and the work we have done through the planning process.

This three step process will result in a renewed vision of mission for us all, as we seek how to live into God's Dream for Advent Episcopal Church—both as congregation and as a baptized person following the example of Jesus Christ.

Please save the above dates now and we'll see you there!

THANKSGIVING AND ST. MARY'S FOOD BANK ALLIANCE

Families here in the "Valley of the Sun" and Arizona who never thought they would need help are struggling to feed their families this Thanksgiving. For every dollar you donate to St. Mary's Food Bank Alliance you can provide struggling families with seven (7) meals. St. Mary's Food Bank Alliance rescues edible food from local grocery stores—on average more than one million meals per month.

Volunteers sort and pack millions of pounds of food each month. (If the Food Bank had to replace volunteers with paid staff the Food Bank would need to hire roughly 130 full time employees.) Last year St. Mary's distributed more than 74 million pounds of food in Arizona. More than 500 partner agencies hand out food to people in Arizona.

Whether you can donate money, a can of food (on the first Sunday of the month here at Advent) or volunteer at the Surprise Food Bank, we can help to feed the hungry.

Hospitality, Events, and Publicity News

The first performance of the Advent Concert Series takes place on Sunday, November 5th at 3:00 PM. The group is Sonoran Sounds Women's Chorale. This dynamic singing group will perform musical selections including classical, inspirational, popular and patriotic tunes. Advent's Concert Series is an excellent opportunity to invite a friend or neighbor to experience our lovely church and meet our welcoming people, so please mark your calendar and plan to attend. A free will offering will be received.

The 5th Annual Arts & Craft Show returns to the Advent property on Friday, November 17th from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM, and Saturday, November 18th from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM. This outstanding event features over 30 vendors on site. With Christmas right around the corner, you should be able to pick-up some great gift items at reasonable prices. Once again, the Arts & Crafts Show will have a delicious food vendor offering chicken tenders, savory fresh-cut French fries, out of this world funnel cakes, and deep fried Oreo cookies (yum!). This year we also welcome the good people from Cactus Corn—the delicious kettle corn you eat when going to Arizona Diamondbacks games! And speaking of delicious, the ECW will have their annual bake sale over these two days. They will be located in the North Hall of Paine Hall—pick up some sweet things to eat now, or freeze for Thanksgiving!

The 5th Annual Arts & Craft Show has several new vendors this year, so please come out and show your support, and be among those who will welcome the hundreds of visitors we get on the Advent Episcopal Church campus over these two days. The events we hold at Advent always present us with a great opportunity to put our best welcome front and center to our surrounding community—that's what true hospitality is all about.

Can you offer one hour of time (or maybe more?) to help welcome others to Advent? Set-up for the Arts and Crafts show begins Thursday, November 16th from 1 PM to 6 PM. Paine Hall has to be set-up for the vendors, as well as spaces outside the buildings here on the property.

Could you volunteer for one of the two welcome tables? Advent members with warm smiles and sunny dispositions are needed from 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM on both days. Our vendors also need breaks throughout both days, so it's great to have Advent volunteers to sit in the booth to provide that respite. Any help you can offer, for any length of time, will be greatly appreciated.

Come help Advent put its best foot forward! To volunteer, please call Flavia Nomicos at (623) 322-3247 and say you'll be there to help! Thank you in advance for your generosity of time!

Lastly, the Marketing team has changed its name to Hospitality, Events and Publicity. Anyone interested in joining this ministry of hospitality, again, please contact Flavia Nomicos, or Sharon Paine; her number is (623) 512-2616. Or just speak with Canon Timothy.

Fine Goods Sold By Fine Folks

It may seem like months away, but our annual rummage sale will be here before we know it. This is ECW's and the Men's Club biggest fundraiser. Profits from the sale go to support our Outreach efforts. We will be accepting donations from Jan. 29-Feb. 8. The sale days are Feb 9 and 10.

We are in the process of forming a planning committee. If you would be interested in joining us, please contact Ann Fletcher at anndfletcher@aol.com or by phone 925-550-4300 or come to our meeting. Our first meeting is Thursday, November 4 in the Conference Room at 10 AM.

What is one man's junk is another's treasure!

Newcomers' News

2017 is zipping by quickly. The Advent Church community has welcomed 45 new members thus far this year! In the past month we have added 7 new members – Earl and Phyllis Yingling, Fred and Marcia Hammett, Lynn Turner, Louise Watts, and Ossie Bartlett. Please welcome them when you see them at our events [they have blue dots on their name badges].

On October 15th the Newcomers' Ministry sponsored a Welcome Newcomers' Gathering in Paine Hall, which was attended by 13 new members, as well as our clergy, vestry liaisons, and Presidents of the Women's and Men's ministries. Those participating learned about some of the activities available at Advent and were encouraged to become involved in their areas of interest. We also learned a little about the backgrounds of our new members and their interests. Prior to the end of the get-together, several had already expressed a desire in assisting with upcoming Advent events and programs. We welcome them to our growing community!

Episcopal Church Women

Women's Ministry

The ECW Fall General Meeting and Brunch was a morning of fellowship, fun and social interaction. Included was a get-acquainted exercise with a map to mark each person's birthplace.

Our program speaker, Pat Kindle, gave a fascinating talk on her experience as a teacher in several countries and two states. It was also interesting to discover that of the fifty-six women attending the meeting, twenty-one of them were former teachers.

A delicious brunch was prepared and served by our board members.

Our gals continue with their various ministries. Helping Hands are not only making blankets and pillows, but are busy planning and preparing for the Bake Sale in conjunction with the Parish Arts and Craft Show. The profits from this event are needed to purchase all the material needed for their ministry. The Happy Hat Hookers are busy making hats for the colder months plus for newborns and cancer patients. The Fashion Show committee members are already collecting small items to be used in the boutique and as tablescapes. If you have rummage sale items, please store them until the collection dates in late January.

COMING ECW EVENTS:

November 5th, Undie Sunday. Undergarments for needy boys & girls.

November 17th- 18th, Helping Hands Bake Sale/Home Canned Goodies.

December 1st, Advent/Christmas Decorating Paine Hall & Sanctuary.

December 13th, ECW Board Meeting.

December 14th, ECW General Meeting and Christmas Luncheon

Telecare Ministry

The TeleCare Ministry is underway at Advent--our first round of calls are being made today! If you see "Advent Episcopal Church" in your caller I.D., take the call! We want to pray for your concerns... Many thanks to Bill, Jan and Stella for their ministry. TeleCare Ministry is a phone call of love.

ADVENT PARISH VISITORS MINISTRY NEEDS YOUR HELP

We are an Inreach Parish Ministry that visits our own Parishioners who because of sickness or housebound cannot fully participate in Church life. Visits are made throughout the year once per month. Father Brian and our two Licensed Care Ministers bring the Holy Eucharist to those who request it.

The Parish Visitors also distribute crosses, soup, prayer shawls and the daily devotional Forward Day by Day. The monthly visit brings many benefits to both the visitors and those that we visit.

If you would like to join this worthwhile blessed Ministry which only takes a few hours each month, please contact Char Stiehl at chars@cox.net, Sharon Mather at 623-202-7544 or Father Brian at 623-584-0350.

The Advent Men's Club is open to all men in the Advent Parish and provides fellowship and outreach to the church and local community. Our dollar donations to various outreach and in reach ministries support such activities as Habitat for Humanity, food collection for St. Mary's Food Bank Alliance, the Salvation Army, the Diocesan Chapel Rock summer camp for children, Luke AFB Airmen's Fund, Victim Advocate Unit, Surprise Police Department, Advent Prayer Shawls, Advent Happy Hat Hookers and more. The Club raises funds for our ministry donations through our two-day Rummage Sale in a joint effort with ECW and various dinners and events put on throughout the year in the Parish. Our outreach program donated over $7,300 in 2017 to various organizations.

Our annual Officer and Board Elections were held at our April, 2017 morning Prayer and Breakfast meeting. The officers are: John Long, President, Bob Fletcher, Vice President and Secretary and Norm Kelln, Treasurer. Bell Road, which is across the street from the main entrance of Sun City West. From May through September we only meet on the third Tuesday of the month at 9:00 AM at Tivoli Gardens Restaurant. Come join us for service and fellowship and get to know about the various Men's Club activities throughout the year.

WHAT DOES THE ALTAR GUILD DO?

Have you ever considered how God's table is prepared for the weekly feast of Eucharist? Every Saturday morning and Wednesday afternoon loving hands of dedicated parishioners prepare the Holy Eucharist table. Without this wonderful Ministry of Devotion there would be no Eucharist for you to celebrate. We also prepare the Eucharist table for funerals or any special services that are scheduled throughout the year.

No experience is required if you want to participate in this vital part of the Worship Service and Parish life. Training is provided as we prepare the Table every week. No one is asked to work alone but rather part of a Team. We currently have four Teams in the Fall/Winter/Spring and three Teams in the Summer.

By participating in this Ministry, you will gain new insights into the Worship Service. If you would like to become a part of the Altar Guild Ministry please contact Lynn Long at 928-252-6438 or email at lynsey1904@gmail.com to get more information.

"Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which he looks compassion on this world. Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good. Yours are the hands through which he blesses all the world."

2017 Diocesan Convention Report: An Alternate's Point of View

by Mari Cicola

As I look out over our congregation, I'm pretty confident that over the years many of you have had some experience participating in the annual diocesan convention. Since Bill and I joined Advent only last September, I wanted to share our experience at this year's convention with you from our perspective as new members of Advent and being new to the Diocese of Arizona.

Shortly after we joined Advent, we were asked if we would run as delegates for this year's diocesan convention. Usually attending conventions is not much fun, as often there are a lot of issues to deal with, so it was with some trepidation that we accepted the call to serve. As we were so new and unknown to so many in the congregation we were not elected as delegates, but were slotted to serve as alternates should that need arise. As convention time neared Advent did in fact need to replace a delegate with an alternate; so I asked Bill to assume the delegate position while I remained an alternate. We made a reservation for our overnight stay at the Sheraton in Phoenix while our parish administrator Carrie Macon registered all of us for the event.

Our delegates representing Advent this year were Dianne Diaz, Anne and Bob Fletcher, Sharon Paine, Judy Hoffman, Dotty Eubanks and Bill Cicola. Beth Dombek served as a volunteer for the convention. Alice Goss and Lowanna Denniston manned a table in the exhibit hall. Our clergy, Timothy, Janet, Debbie, and Brian were there. Carpooling our way to the hotel in Phoenix we left Advent at 7:30 AM on Sept. 29th in order to arrive for registration at 9:00 AM.

Upon arriving at the convention the volunteer staff had everything under control. Plenty of people to check us in, and hand out name tags, give directions. The ECW Prayer chapel was blessed by the Bishop, there were some workshops going on and a Senior wardens gathering for lunch.

The guest speaker this year was the Rev. Becca Stevens from Nashville. Becca has been featured in The New York Times, on ABC World News and NPR. She was named a 2016 CNN Hero and a White House "Champion of Change." She was featured in the PBS documentary, A Path Appears, named "Humanitarian of the Year" by the Small Business Council of America, and inducted into the Tennessee Women's Hall of Fame. This amazing woman began an organization called, Thistle Farms.

Thistle Farms welcomes women who have trafficking, domestic violence, and addictions backgrounds, offering them free housing, medical care, therapy and education for two years. Thistle Farms employs more than 1,800 women worldwide, and has a national network with more than 40 sister communities. A truly gifted and impactful speaker, Becca's main message was that in all things we should CONSIDER AND SEEK.

At Thistle Farms the women produce body care products to sell as a way of making income. They had plenty of their lotions, oils, scrubs, candles, books, and jewelry on display for sale. By Saturday afternoon almost everything had been sold, and Becca announced to everybody at convention that she was just in love with the Diocese of Arizona.

Following lunch on the patio or in the restaurant each of us broke off to attend workshops. The theme of the convention was "Ministering on the Margins." Workshops dealt with Survivors, the poor, the imprisoned, the LGBTQ marginalized, the disabled, and the racially marginalized. The workshops began at 2:30 Friday afternoon and ended just before 5:00. Because most of us from Advent took different workshops, coming together later during dinner it was wonderful being able to discuss the various topics we had been engaged in.

I had pre-selected the Survivors' workshop for my workshop and was blessed to have Becca Stevens conducting it, along with some of the women that have come through her program. Their stories of survival were impactful to say the least. Canon Timothy participated in the workshop for the disabled, and I heard such amazing compliments about that workshop—particularly in the resource material that was given out to participants.

Convention dinner was a sit down buffet provided in the hotel ballroom. Afterward we gathered outside on the patio for a dessert and coffee bar while being treated to a live band. By the way, clergy love to dance. We enjoyed each other's company into the evening while meeting new and old friends.

After breakfast, coffee and ballot distribution began 8:00 in the morning on Saturday, September 30. At 9:00 the Eucharist began in the large convention hall. We enjoyed a beautiful service. It was amazing to see how quickly and efficiently communion can be given to so many people while still maintaining an intimate feeling. Our own Jonathan Dombek read the Old Testament reading. There was Native American drumming in the background during the prayers of the people.

The business meeting began approximately 11:00. Our bishop enjoys starting his meetings with some jokes and he did not disappoint the crowd. A boxed lunch was provided for the noonday break followed by the continuation of the business meeting and voting.

As an alternate, I was free to go back to the exhibit hall during the voting part of the meeting where I could re-examine and chat with exhibitors there. Returning to the business meeting later on I found it ran smoothly. There really weren't any contentious issues this year. We enjoyed a presentation given by the youth of the parish. Wow, what a camp we have for them! Their message was that they are not the church of the future, they are the church of today. We also learned about the diocesan family camp program as it was explained by an adult participant. Who knew we had such great services like that!

The convention ended at about 3:00 Saturday afternoon, which everybody was thrilled about. Bill and I found it to be a beautiful and uplifting experience. We especially enjoyed the time we had to really get to know our fellow delegates, members of our Advent worshipping community. These men and women really work hard for all of us here at Advent.

At convention we also saw so many women clergy in our diocese—so wonderful to see that. We are truly blessed in this diocese to have such youthful energetic and genuinely involved clergy than was our experience back east. Just spend a little time with our clergy and you will see beautiful, funny and empathetic people.

Both Bill and I look forward to possibly attending next year's convention as delegates. We celebrated our 43rd wedding anniversary while at convention. It almost felt like a big party just for us.

Peace. Stay blessed.

Mari Cicola
